

Expert legal advice with a personal service

With over 40 years of experience in the legal sector, Astle Paterson has cemented its reputation as one of the leading solicitor firms in Burton upon Trent. This has been achieved through providing a variety of different services for individuals and businesses alike.

Our reputation has been built on trusted relationships, expert advice and long-term client satisfaction, with much of our work coming from repeat business and referrals.

Specialists in dispute resolution

We are recognised for our expertise in commercial dispute resolution, guiding businesses through Contractual disputes, Property conflicts, Debt and asset recovery and Civil litigation.

Whether resolving matters in or out of court, our experienced team is skilled in mediation, arbitration and adjudication. We take a strategic, commercially-focused approach, aiming for practical and cost-effective outcomes.

Legal solutions for businesses

From commercial property law to funding solutions for business growth or sales, we offer clear, tailored advice.

Our commercial property solicitors regularly assist with shops, offices, industrial units and developments, working closely with buyers, sellers, landlords and tenants. We simplify the legal process, managing searches, negotiations and contracts with precision and professionalism.

Conveyancing you can count on

Our conveyancing team is dedicated to making property transactions smooth and stress-free. If you are buying, selling or re-mortgaging, we liaise with all parties involved and ensure clear communication every step of the way. That's why 99% of our clients say they would use us again!

Family law with sensitivity and care

Legal matters involving family are often the most personal, and we are proud to have accredited specialists with Resolution and the Law Society's Family Law Panel. Our Family Law team provides expert, compassionate guidance on:

- Divorce
- Separation
- Financial settlements
- Child arrangements
- Civil partnerships

Professional notary services

Our Notary Public, Jean Paterson, handles the authentication and certification of documents for international use. From property transactions abroad to powers of attorney, we ensure your documents are legally recognised and processed efficiently through the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Support for growing businesses

Our corporate law services centre around providing expert legal support across all areas of corporate law for private sector businesses, with a particular focus on mergers, acquisitions, trade sales and disposals. Our team also advises on company formations, restructuring, joint ventures and shareholders' agreements. We will offer you practical, strategic input on day-to-day commercial matters and company law compliance.

Wills, probate and private client services

Planning for the future is essential. Our Private Client team offers expert advice on Wills, Powers of Attorney, inheritance tax planning, trusts, and estate administration. We offer a free 30-minute Will review and tailor every service to your individual needs.

Our combination of specialist legal expertise with a personal, client-focused approach is what gives customers confidence in our services. From navigating complex business disputes and commercial property matters to supporting families through sensitive changes and helping individuals plan for the future, our team is committed to delivering clear, practical advice you can rely on.

Whatever your legal needs, you can trust us to act in your best interests, with integrity, professionalism and care. We have a proven track record across dispute resolution, property law, family matters, notarial services and private client work.
